

The background of the cover features three lit candles in glass holders, arranged in a triangular pattern. The candles are lit, with bright yellow flames and a warm orange glow emanating from them. The background is dark, making the light from the candles stand out. The title text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.

Stories Whispered in the Night

Maureen Fitzgerald Grimes